

key word_consumption

presentation_nr.3/13,may,2009

group03_luiza barone, matteo verzelloni, davide luca, guendalina ciancimino, thomas hojermo, boris murnig

02

just an example of...

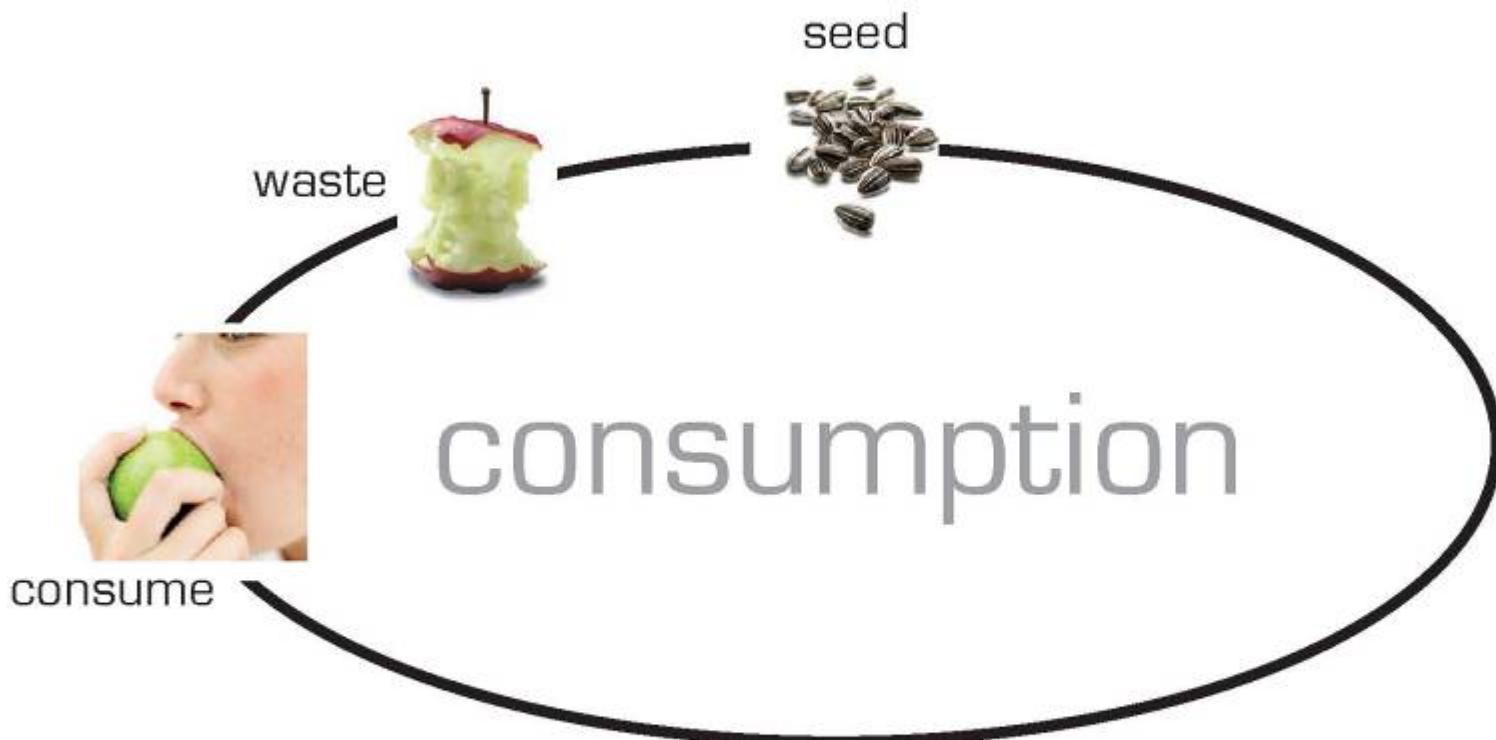

consumption

consume

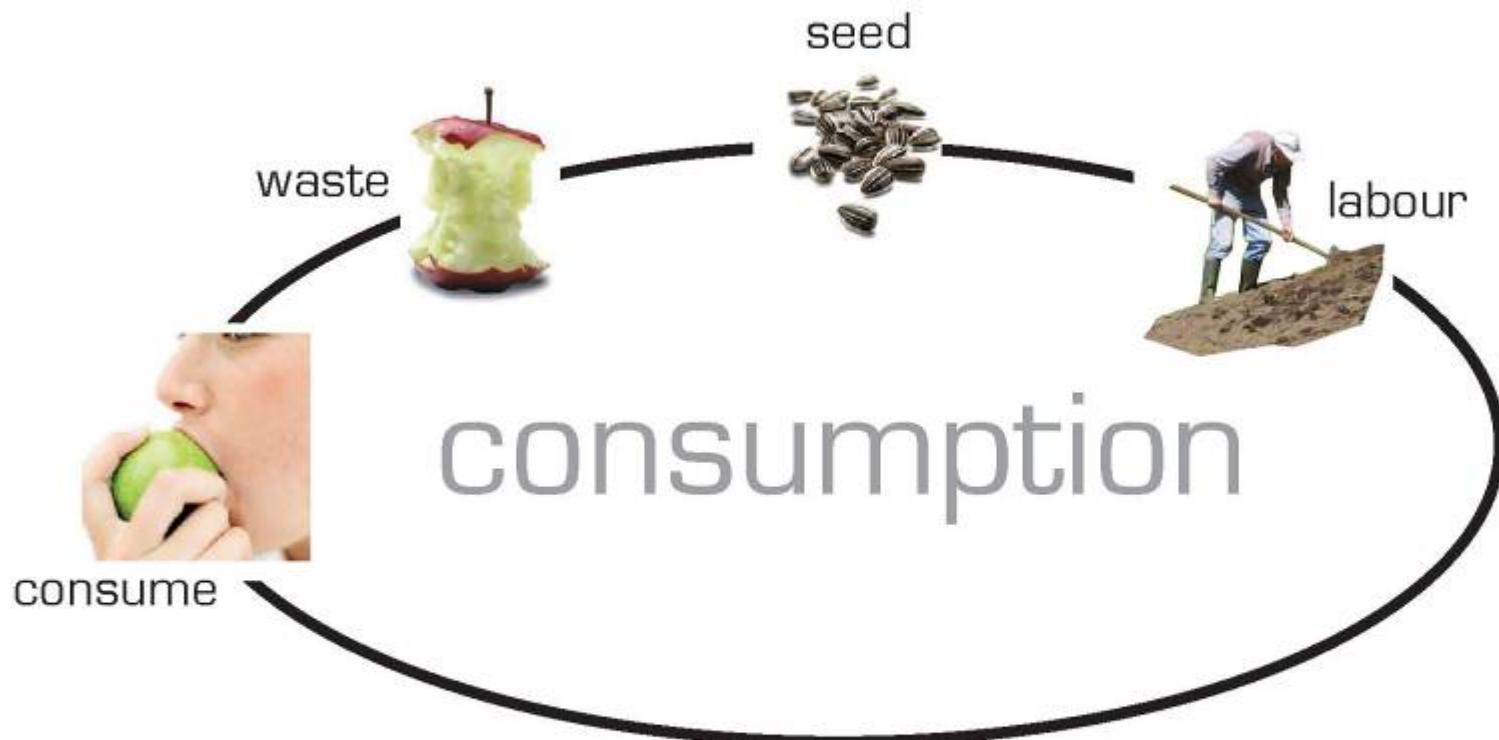

just an example of...

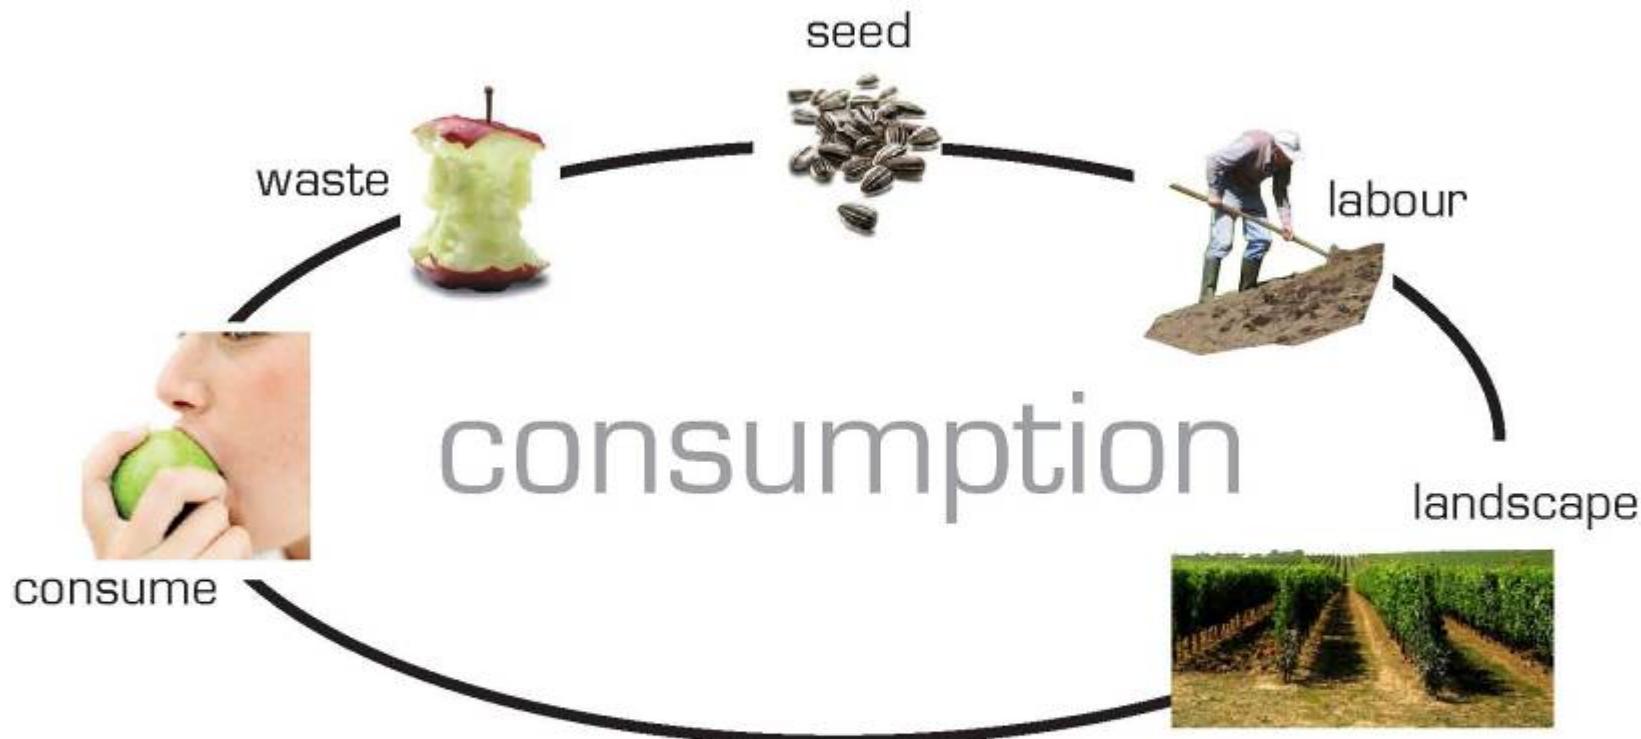

just an example of...

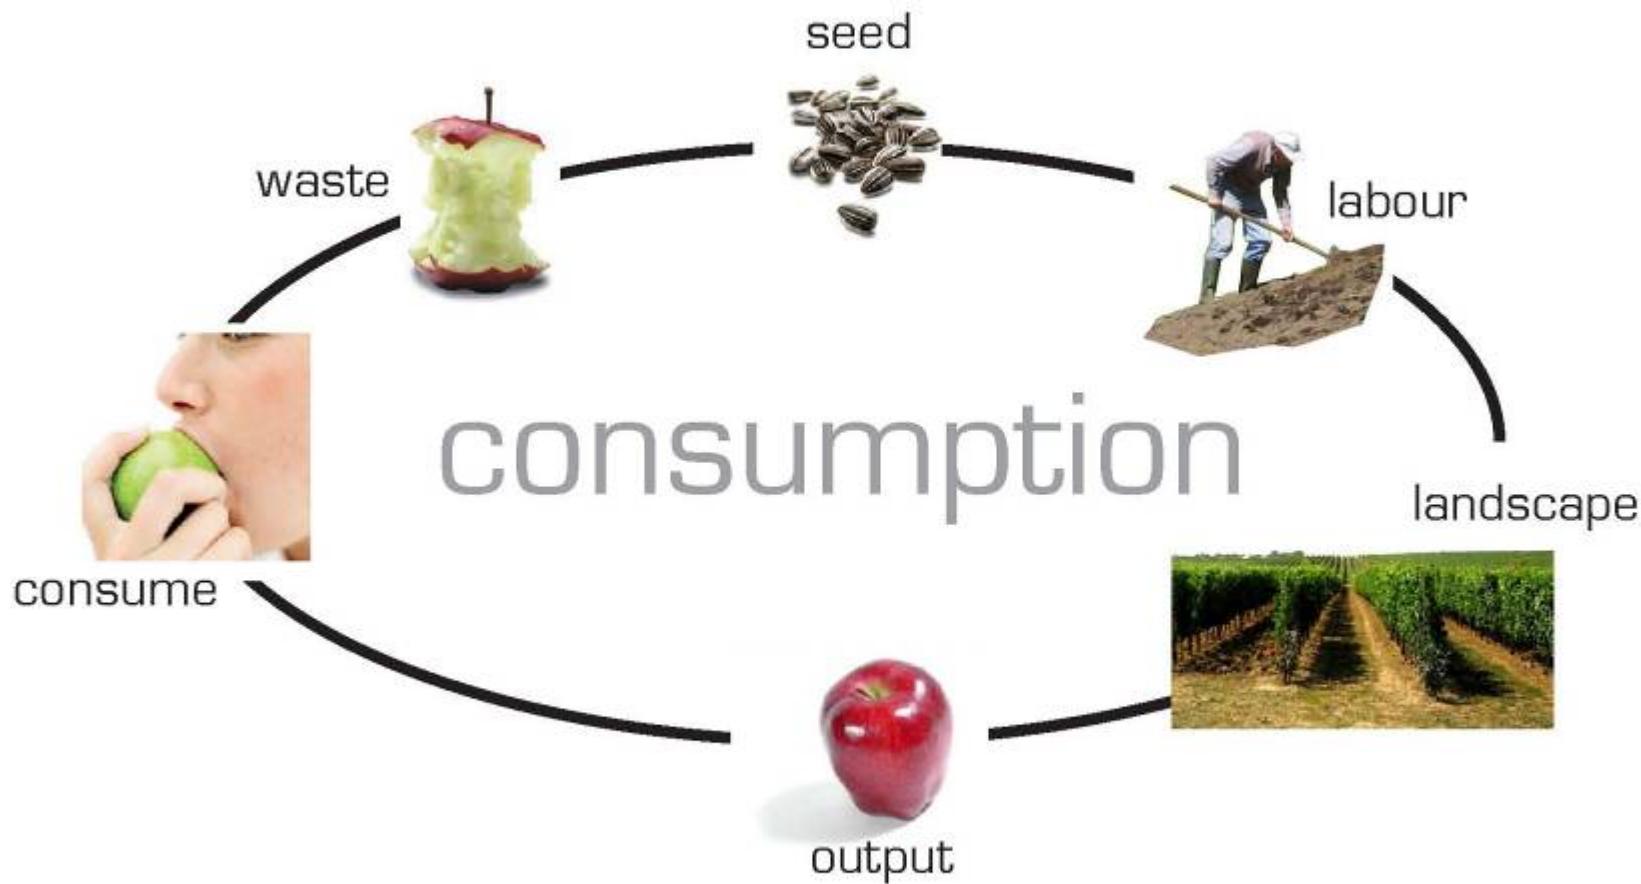

just an example of...

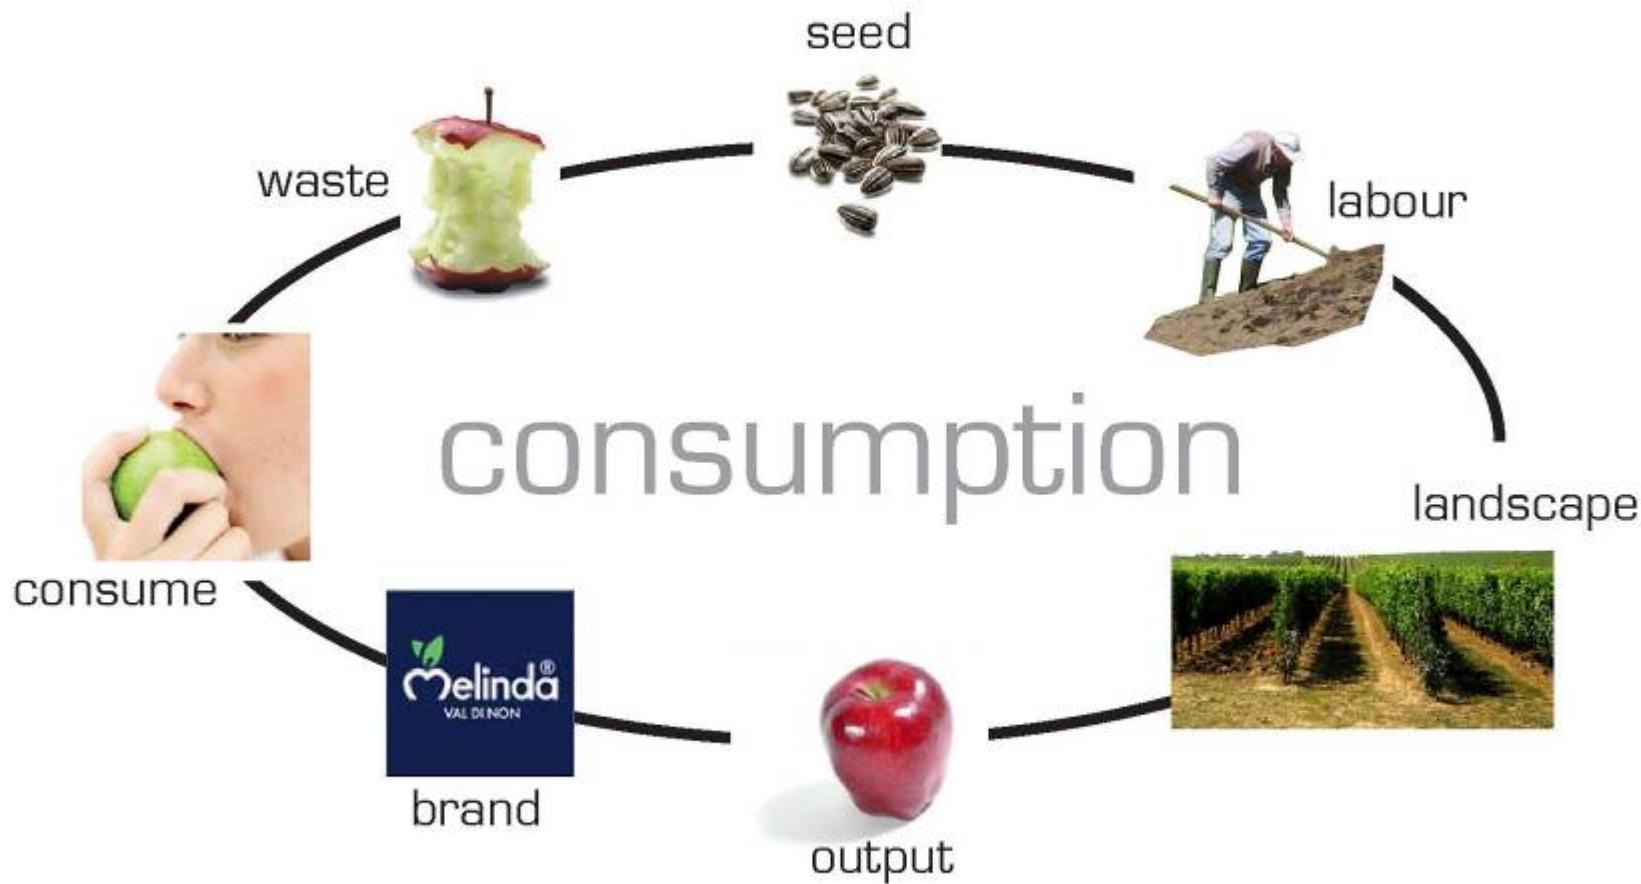

just an example of...

just an example of...

just an example of...

consumption

land use

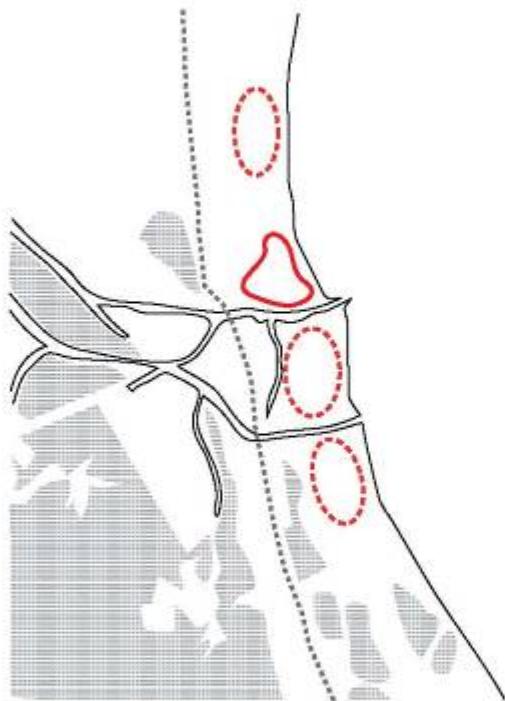

image

- population_tourists/locals
- time/pressure
- land property/public space
- branding strategy
-

a comparison between

porto garibaldi/system of lidos

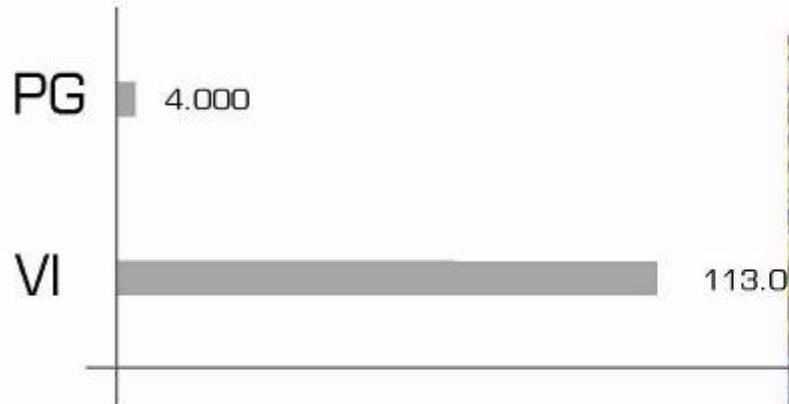

vicenza/system hills

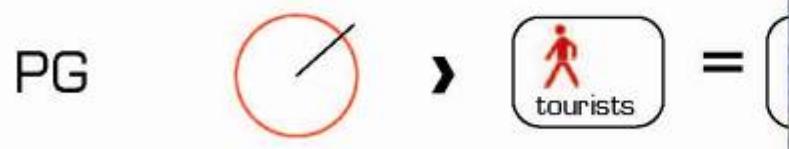

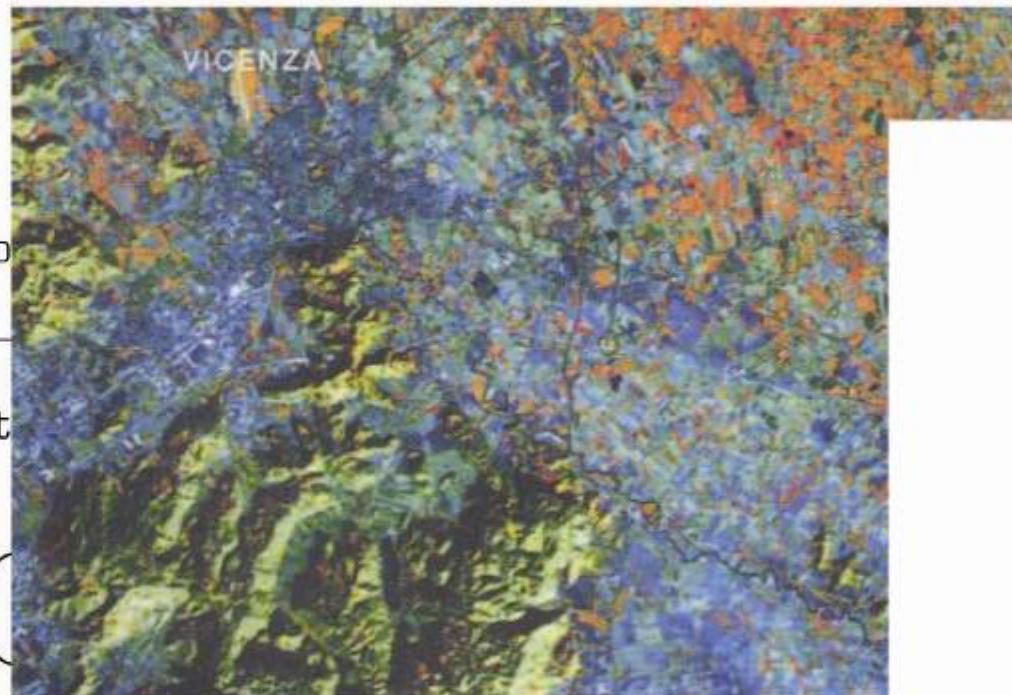

how many inhabitants ?

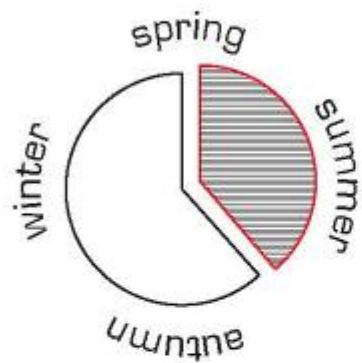

what proportions ( inhabitants / tourist )

touristic pressure in time

PG

VI

high

low d

Consumption

1. the act of consuming, as by use, decay, or destruction.
2. the amount consumed: the high consumption of gasoline.
3. Economics. the using up of goods and services having an exchangeable value.
4. Pathology.
  - a. Older Use. tuberculosis of the lungs.
  - b. progressive wasting of the body.

Origin:

1350–1400; ME consumpcyon (< MF) < L consūmptiōn- (s. of consūmptiō) a consuming, wasting, equiv. to consūmpt(us), ptp. of consūmere to consume (con- con- + sūmp- (var. s. of sūmere to take up, spend) + -tus ptp. suffix) + -iōn- -ion

Synonyms:

1. depletion, exploitation, utilization.

how consumption affects the landscape

